Mike Stone – Amerika is Going Straight to Hell

Monday, November 17, 2025 13:25

"A society that has lost control of its women and allows them to openly prostitute themselves is beyond redemption and not worth saving. Everyone involved, both whores and soyboys, is going straight to hell."

"What I'm talking about is the moral, spiritual and mental collapse of the American people.
Almost everyone in the country today is suffering from mental illness, and almost everyone in the country today is morally and spiritually bankrupt.
We've reached the point where recovery is impossible.
Here are five recent examples of what I'm talking about.

Makow Comment - Freemasonry's credo is "we corrupt in order to control." Communism, a branch of Freemasonry, advocates the destruction of marriage and nuclear family. We re witnessing this in real time.

Let's face it. American has fallen.

When I say America has fallen I'm not talking about the country itself. America is not going to erupt into Civil War. (American men are too docile to engage in Civil War.)

We're not going to descend into total anarchy with Haitian cannibals roasting and eating white people and their pets.

And we're not going to see Christians rounded up and guillotined for their faith, although Papa Bush did sign legislation into law that legalizes beheading Christians. He did that on March 20, 1991. That law is still in effect.

What I'm talking about is the moral, spiritual and mental collapse of the American people. Almost everyone in the country today is suffering from mental illness, and almost everyone in the country today is morally and spiritually bankrupt. We've reached the point where recovery is impossible. Here are five recent examples of what I'm talking about.

1) Young women today no longer want to have children and raise happy families. Instead they aspire to making millions of dollars by whoring themselves out on OnlyFans. And there are millions of simps, suckers, and soyboys who are only too happy to pay them. Some of you reading this are those very same simps, suckers, and soyboys.

A society that has lost control of its women and allows them to openly prostitute themselves is beyond redemption and not worth saving. Everyone involved, both whores and soyboys, is going straight to hell.

2) Over 50% of American women have had abortions. They've literally murdered their own baby and many of them have had multiple abortions. Not only that, but there are millions of more women who haven't had abortions, but vote to keep abortion legal, just in case they choose to murder their own baby in the future. Meanwhile, American men have stood by the entire time and done nothing.

A society that allows its women to openly murder their own children is beyond redemption and not worth saving. Everyone involved – women who have abortions, women who vote for abortion, men who impregnate women who have abortions, and men who do nothing to stop the murder of children – is going straight to hell.

3) In the last presidential election, 40% of American voters cast their ballot for a drunk, broken-down old whore. In the election before that, they voted for a corrupt, child-molesting former Vice President. And in the election before that, they voted for a lesbian witch. But wait it gets worse.

Those same mentally ill Americans who voted against Trump also cheered the alleged assassination of Charlie Kirk. They cheer the death of anyone who disagrees with them. They want you dead and buried.

This is as clear of a sign of mental decay and the fall of America as you'll ever see anywhere. A society this morally corrupt is beyond redemption and not worth saving. All of those braindead voters are going straight to hell.

4) The recent government shutdown and subsequent cutoff of EBT benefits revealed that 48% of people living in this country are on food stamps and collecting government assistance. That's roughly half the nation and for many of them it's a permanent lifestyle choice. The welfare system is corrupt from top to bottom. Many recipients are receiving double, triple, or, in some cases, ten times the amount of support they should be receiving.

A society where half the population is forced to work in order to support the other half who refuse to work is both morally and financially bankrupt. All the freeloaders who could work but don't are going to straight to hell.

5) This past year we watched as college students in their teens and twenties who were peacefully protesting the genocide in Gaza got vilified by the mainstream media, beaten and arrested by the police, and expelled from school.

The protesters weren't hurting anyone. They weren't threatening anyone. They weren't blocking traffic or causing any type of disturbance. But the same pussified police departments who kneeled in submission to the violent rioters of 2020, went in, busted their heads, and arrested them. And to top it off, the braindead boomers who make up the majority of the Republican Party cheered the police on. They actually called for more violence, more cracked skulls, and more arrests.

A society that allows violent criminals to roam free, while simultaneously attacking and arresting peaceful citizens is beyond redemption and not worth saving. Everyone involved – the cops, everyone in the media who slandered the protesters, and the dumbasses who cheered the cops on – is going straight to hell.

I could list dozens, possibly hundreds, of more recent signs that America has fallen, but you get the idea. Yes, we dodged a bullet when Trump won the last presidential election, And yes, Trump is doing a lot of good things – and a few bad things – but he can't do it all on his own, and he can't legislate morality. Or intelligence. Nobody can.

That's because people are intrinsically evil. And stupid. And selfish. Previous generations kept a lid on people that were stupid, evil, and selfish and limited their damage to wars. Now it's anything goes.

Take a walk down the street. Almost everyone you see, over 99% of them, is on their way to hell. Your only hope is not to join them. Forget the country. It's done. Finished. Kaput. Save yourself.

I think there was a verse in the Bible that state not to let fathers drive their daughters into whoredom or sumthing like that. Today you don't have to marry. You just have to "shack up" which is giving couples the "shake up" with relations turning more into whoredom and open vee ginas, all free and no fee.
